

Why study Humanities?

Humanities subjects offer a whole range of skills that prepare you for lifelong learning and can assist you in performing well in other subject areas. For example, statistical interpretation from real world scenarios; report writing from firsthand data gathering and observations; interpreting and responding to everyday events in the news and what is happening in the community – are invaluable skills in assisting you in your learning and understanding everyday life.

Our Mission

To develop inspired, innovative and resilient learners prepared to challenge the future.

Humanities

Senior Applied 11-12

Humanities

Skills fundamental to Humanities are also fundamental in preparation for tertiary and vocational pathways. It is DEFINITELY worth choosing the Humanities subject/s that interest you, but be prepared to work at it to get the results you desire.

The vocational pathway involves a lead-in to Social Community Studies and Tourism.

Social and Community Studies

SOCIAL AND COMMUNITY STUDIES – (Applied)

Social and Community Studies contexts incorporates 'lifeskills' that are considered necessary for all people to be able to function with a reasonable degree of efficiency and well-being in their contemporary and future life situations. Examples include; budgeting, personal health, and an introduction into the workforce. Futures Perspective - TAFE course links; traineeships/apprenticeships in a variety of career paths including retail and hospitality

Topics include – Today's Society, Gender and Identify, Food and Nutrition, Health: Recreation and Leisure, World of Work, Money Management and Introduction to Relationships

Combine with - Essential English, Essential Mathematics and a selection of Applied subjects

Tourism

TOURISM – (Applied)

Tourism develops an understanding and appreciation of the tourism industry and its impact on economic, social and environmental aspects of our lifestyle and that of host communities when travelling.

Students are provided with intellectual, operational workplace skills as well as personal attributes and interpersonal skills. Students will develop specific skills related to the tourism and hospitality industries.

Futures Perspective – TAFE course links; traineeships/apprenticeships in a variety of career paths including tour owner-operator, travel supervisor, tour coordinator, tour guide, or employment at a theme park, a tourist attraction or other tourism and travel related organisations.

Topics include – The Nature of Tourism, The Work Environment, Marketing of Tourism, Overseas Destinations, Travel Agency Operations, Tour Guiding, Cultural Awareness and Tourism and Special Even

Combine with - Essential English, Essential Mathematics and a selection of Applied subjects